

PEOPLE & PLANET LAB (PPL)

We Are Hiring!

Join the cutting-edge research at Prof. Miri Yemini's People and Planet Lab at the Technion! We are seeking highly motivated candidates for a Ph.D. position with a strong interest in Sociology and Education. Proficiency in English and the ability to thrive in a multinational, multicultural team are essential.

At the People and Planet Lab, we focus on research in youth activism. As a Ph.D. candidate, you will engage in one of the existing projects:

- Internationalisation of Education
- Youth Activism (STUDACT project)
- Global Citizenship Education
- Global Middle Class
- Migration, Mobility and Identity
- Place Based Education
- External Actors in Education

If you are passionate about driving positive change and possess the skills to excel in a diverse team, we invite you to apply.

Join us at Prof. Miri Yemini's lab and be part of shaping a better future through research that matters.
